

FREE Fall Baseball Clinic Sponsored by Grafton Little League for Boys & Girls Ages 4, 5 and 6

Grafton Little League is sponsoring a FREE Fall Baseball Clinic Saturday, October 22, at 1:00 p.m. at the Ferry Street Baseball Complex. The clinic is open to boys and girls ages 4-6. Any child turning age 4 by April 30, 2012 is eligible to play in Little League.

The session will last one hour and players will be taught how to properly field, throw and hit. Grafton Little League's T-Ball Division is open to any boy or girl ages 4, 5 or 6 (must be 4 by April 30th). The focus in T-Ball is to introduce the team sport of baseball in a fun, structured way. The emphasis of the FREE clinic on October 22 is to have fun.

Who: Grafton Little League

What: FREE Fall T-Ball Baseball Clinic

Where: Ferry Street Baseball Complex

When: Saturday, October 22, 1:00 p.m.

Why: Grafton Little League is hoping to introduce the great game of baseball to the future generation of players.

If you have any questions about the clinic please contact Grafton Little League's T-Ball Division Vice President Ken Papetti at: ken.papetti@am.jll.com

About Grafton Little League Registration for the 2012 Season

Grafton Little League will open registration for the Spring 2012 season on November 1. Registration cost for TBall players is $75.00. Please register by December 1 to avoid a late fee of $25. The savings of $25.00 can be used to purchase a new glove, bat or baseball cleats. Grafton Little League will have additional registration information available on its league website soon, at: www.graftonlittleleague.org.